The term New World Order (NWO) has been used by numerous politicians through the ages, and is a generic term used to refer to a worldwide conspiracy being orchestrated by an extremely powerful and influential group of genetically-related individuals (at least at the highest echelons) which include many of the world's wealthiest people, top political leaders, and corporate elite, as well as members of the so-called Black Nobility of Europe (dominated by the British Crown) whose goal is to create a One World Government, stripped of nationalistic and regional boundaries, that is obedient to their agenda.

Listen to the Zionist banker, Paul Warburg:
"We will have a world government whether you like it or not. The only question is whether that government will be achieved by conquest or consent." (February 17, 1950, as he testified before the US Senate).

Their intention is to effect complete and total control over every human being on the planet and to dramatically reduce the world's population by two thirds. While the name New World Order is the term most frequently used today to loosely refer to anyone involved in this conspiracy, the study of exactly who makes up this group is a complex and intricate one. For further research sources, please see the side bar on the left.

In 1992, Dr John Coleman published Conspirators Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300. With laudable scholarship and meticulous research, Dr Coleman identifies the players and carefully details the New World Order agenda of worldwide domination and control. On page 161 of the Conspirators Hierarchy, Dr Coleman accurately summarizes the intent and purpose of the Committee of 300 as follows:

"A One World Government and one-unit monetary system, under permanent non-elected hereditary oligarchists who self-select from among their numbers in the form of a feudal system as it was in the Middle Ages. In this One World entity, population will be limited by restrictions on the number of children per family, diseases, wars, famines, until 1 billion people who are useful to the ruling class, in areas which will be strictly and clearly defined, remain as the total world population.

There will be no middle class, only rulers and the servants. All laws will be uniform under a legal system of world courts practicing the same unified code of laws, backed up by a One World Government police force and a One World unified military to enforce laws in all former countries where no national boundaries shall exist. The system will be on the basis of a welfare state; those who are obedient and subservient to the One World Government will be rewarded with the means to live; those who are rebellious will simply be starved to death or be declared outlaws, thus a target for anyone who wishes to kill them. Privately owned firearms or weapons of any kind will be prohibited."

The New World Order is NO JOKE! The Conspiracy for a One World Globalist Government is in place and the BPP is dedicated to fighting it tooth and nail.

RESIST THE GLOBALISTS! RESIST THE NEW WORLD ORDER!

The Way we Live Now

by Junius

Reviewing a review

The title of this new book is "Churchill and the Jews" the author being a Jewish gentleman with the somewhat un-likely name of Martin Gilbert. It is reviewed in the Sunday Telegraph by Nigel Farndale who observes that, "It is well to remember that the holocaust became the moral justification for the war only retrospectively. At the time it was fought, the war was more about the Allies defeating an expansionist Germany in the interests of global security." Now where on earth have we heard a similar phrase more recently? And then we get a quote from Churchill when speaking in the House of Commons in 1946; "I must say, I had no idea, when the war came to an end, of the horrible massacres which had occurred; the millions and millions that have been slaughtered. That dawned on us gradually after the struggle was over." And, after that, over more than half a century, everybody else has had to lap up this nonsense.

But even more interesting are the comments on Churchill himself. "He was" says Farndale, "a passionate Zionist – one of the most ardent behind-the-scenes champions of the Balfour declaration – and Gilbert unearths previously un-published evidence to this effect, secret testimony that Churchill gave to a commission on the future of Palestine in 1937". Elsewhere it is noted that he had, "a reputation in club land for having only Jewish friends" Was this then thelegendary, heroic, cigar-chomping, brandy-swilling, growling defender of the British Empire, who foolishly rejected the German leader's "Last appeal to reason", or just another patsy in the pockets of his club land pals? Oh! And by the way. Whatever happened to that British Empire that so many fought and died for?

He often got it right!

"We owe it to our ancestors to preserve entire those rights which they have delivered to our care: we owe it to our posterity not to suffer their dearest inheritance to be de-stroyed. But if it were possible for us to be insensible of these sacred claims, there is yet an obligation binding upon ourselves, from which nothing can acquit us, a personal interest, which we cannot surrender. To alienate even our own rights, would be a crime as much more enormous than suicide, as a life of civil security and freedom is superior to a bare existence; and if life be the bounty of heaven, we scornfully reject the noblest part of the gift, if we consent to surrender that certain rule of living, without which the condition of human nature is not only miserable but contempti-ble." (Junius, Letter XX addressed to the printer of the Public Advertiser 8th. August 1769)

The Letters of Junius, dealing in the main with contemporary matters, are not always easy reading. But many of his comments are priceless and still pertinent.

A view from Stateside

Pat Buchanan does not mention our own sad losses occa-sioned by arch-cretin Bush's imperialist ventures, but oth-erwise he neatly sums up the current situation:- "What has the war cost? Going on 3,800 U.S. dead and 28,000 wounded. More than 100,000 Iraqis are dead; 2 million, including most Christians and much of the professional class, have fled. Millions have been ethnically cleansed from neighbourhoods where their families had lived for generations. Once the most advanced country in the Arab world, Iraq has been devastated and is coming apart. Sectarian, civil and tribal war has broken out. Al-Qaida has a presence. And it is a fair prediction that when the Americans depart, they will have fought the longest war in their history, only to have replaced the Sunni dictatorship of Saddam Hussein with a Shia dictatorship aligned with Iran. Across the region, the situation appears bleak. In Pakistan, al-Qaida has reconstituted itself. Bin Laden is sending out tapes. Gen. Musharraf, who rules a nation of 170 million with atom bombs, is floundering. The Taliban have made a comeback. As our allies have left or are leaving Iraq, including the Brits, so, too, the NATO allies in Afghanistan are wearying of the struggle."

On the other hand, if numbers actually mean something to you, it is interesting to note that, to date, the Iraq fiasco has cost the United States taxpayers $454,000,000,000!

Vanguard Note: Junius was originally the pseudonym of a writer who contributed a series of letters to the Public Advertiser, from January 21, 1769 to January 21, 1772. The signature had been already used, apparently by him, in a letter of November 21, 1768. These and numerous other personal letters were not included in his Letters of Junius collection, published in 1772.

The name was chosen in all probability because he had already signed Lucius and Brutus, and wished to exhaust the name of Lucius Junius Brutus the Roman patriot. It might also be derived from the Roman poet Juvenal, who was thought to also have the nomen Junius. Some say that he wrote under numerous other pseudonyms before, during and after the period between January 1769 and January 1772. He may also have written as Philo-Junius, a character who came to the rescue of Junius when it was clear that the public was misinterpreting his messages. There is weak evidence that he also wrote as Veteran, Nemesis and other anonymous correspondents of the Public Advertiser.

Nationalist Newsround

Coincidence?

If we were of a mind, we could so easily attribute base motives to Lib-Dem (ex) leader, Ming Campbell in the timing of his resignation – calculated to dominate political comment for the next few days and thus drown out discussion on the IGC.

It is, of course, a coincidence, just as Blair's resignation after the June European Council and the Brown accession curtailed detailed discussion of the mandate. All one can say, therefore, is that in its progress through the system, this draft treaty has had a charmed life.

It is no surprise, therefore, that – from one of the few detailed reports we can find of yesterday's proceedings in Luxembourg - officials were "confident" that the forthcoming IGC summit with "put an end to two years of angst" over the EU's constitution.

We learn that, "still to be sorted out" are changes Poland wants to the voting rules, Italy's unhappiness with the allocation of European Parliament seats, and a cap on foreign students sought by Austria. Another last-minute hurdle is a tug-of-war between Bulgaria and the EU over the spelling of the word "euro" in the Cyrillic alphabet.

Nevertheless, Manuel Lobo Antunes, European affairs minister for Portugal, is chipper, declaring that, "Our confidence is now greater than before ... There is a firm political will that we should conclude this in Lisbon."

Merkel and Barroso, likewise, express confidence of success. Says Barroso, "We will do utmost to reach a deal," while Merkel adds: "There is no reason, no excuse, not to come to an agreement." Her political flunky echoes this. Says German foreign minister Frank-Walter Steinmeier. "Everybody is optimistic that this ambitious project will not fail."

So, it is all a done deal ... all but the theatre. And, as the "colleagues" stitch us up, the British media goes into hyper drive over Ming. Perhaps it wasn't a coincidence... Nah!

THAT'S BRITAIN TODAY!

A Chief Constable is calling for the legalization of all drugs, including heroin, ecstasy and everything else. North Wales top cop, the unbelievable Mr. Bumstorm, was quoted on TV news on 14th October as demanding that every drug be unbanned. The very next day, middle-class Brits were warned that a glass of wine a day was dangerous, while a huge fall-off in kids eating school meals was reported, after the nincompoop chef Jamie Oliver's imposition of 'goody-two-shoes' diets on the said school dinners swept away youngsters' favourites from the menu –no chips ever again. Parents' views are dismissed as ignorant or irrelevant.

The tide of silliness that is sweeping over the UK coincides with the announcement that anyone who speaks harshly about perverts will face up to SEVEN YEARS behind bars. As Canadians already know, such 'hate laws' will end up with pastors and politicians being dragged before courts for expressing what most normal people think. Ordinary folk will fall silent and their kids will be indoctrinated by left-lib teachers into thinking that homosexuality is somehow just as acceptable as natural relationships. This is going on despite more and more evidence that perverts area menace in the classroom.

The Labour Party has unveiled its Highly Skilled Migrants Policy. This would limit immigration to skilled people such as doctors and financial experts. Doctors are understandable but financial experts we can do without. It was "experts" who advised Margaret Thatcher to join the ERM and introduce the Poll Tax. They convinced the American banks to lend money to the unemployed and advised the privatization of British Rail. We have got more than enough financial advisors without importing more of them.

Ashley Mote the independent MEP was found guilty at Portsmouth Crown Court of 8 charges of false accounting, 8 charges of obtaining money transfer by deception, 4 charges of evading liability and 1 charge of failing to notify a change of circumstances. But earlier this year he was the author of a 25,000 word report alleging that there is something wrong with EU accounting. He must have known when he issued his report that he was about to be exposed as a benefit cheat and a fraud. Perhaps he thought that he could get away with it? Such is the deluded nature of the men that we are electing as our representatives.

Afghanistan - unwinnable war

When Defence Minister John Reid sent British troops to Afghanistan he said he would be "very happy if they do not fire a shot." But the latest "friendly fire" deaths in Afghanistan have taken fatalities to 73. British troops are fighting so close to the insurgents that the Americans cannot provide accurate air cover. The Russians had the same problems when they occupied the country from 1979 to 1989. They lost 20,000 men and had 53,753 wounded. The war bankrupted the Soviet Union and caused its collapse. Eventually Mikhail Gorbachev decided that the war was unwinnable. NATO has yet to reach the same conclusion.

Keith Vaz the Aden-born son of a Goanese has called for a referendum on the Euro treaty because he feels that the British people have a right to decide. Fair enough but we should also have a referendum on the mass importation of Asians and Africans into our already overcrowded country. Keith Vaz was once an enthusiastic Minister for Europe but he fell from grace due to his involvement with the Hinduja brothers and the cash for honours scandal.

FIRST BPP ANNUAL CONGRESS A GREAT SUCCESS!

Tony Braithwaite speaks

The first Annual BPP Congress was held today in Leeds. With around 70 delegates from many parts of the country the meeting was a terrific success Ten new members were signed up during the meeting and over £400 raised through the raffle and collection plus literature sales. Literature stalls were manned by "Mad Dogs and Englishmen", selling a great range of White Nationalist DVD's and CD's. "Heritage and Destiny" selling the H&D magazine plus a great collection of badges. The BPP stall did a roaring trade manned by Kev and Women's Division member Lianne.

The meeting was ably chaired by BPP Youth Division Leader, Dave Jones and the first speaker was East Yorkshire BPP Organiser Tony Braithwaite who played some of his radio interview tapes. Tony regularly gets onto the radio spreading the message.

Tony was followed by Peter Williamson, BPP National Organiser who gave a studied speech reflecting on the BPP growth and future development.

After a short interval, the meeting resumed with resolutions from the floor including one to set up the BPP National Executive Council, the new ruling body of the Movement.

Then followed BPP National Speaker, Pete Rushton who gave a great speech covering the tyrannous race laws.

The last speaker was BPP National Inspector, Eddy Morrison who ended his speech with a "White Power" salute which was taken up by the comrades present.

BPP members were told this Congress would be one of many to be held every year and next year will be twice as big!

Thanks to all who helped including the BPP Security Section..

Mind Wars: How the Media prepare the masses for their downfall

Star Wars – A Study in Psychological Warfare

by Russell Smith

George Lucas described his films as popcorn movies for the entertainment of the mindless masses. The Star Wars series would seem at first sight to fit this description perfectly, however upon closer examination a more sinister purpose becomes apparent.

The Star Wars series is split into three trilogies, which shall be looked at briefly in turn:

The first set of three films was released in the 1970s and 1980s as Star Wars episodes 4, 5 and 6. These films were science fiction of the adventure/fantasy variety. The basic plot follows a group of heroic freedom fighters in their struggle against an evil oppressive tyrannical empire. As with all good fairy stories, after many ups and down, good triumphs in the end.

The second installment of the trilogies was released after a gap of nearly twenty years, thus gathering a new generation into the fold of Star Wars fans. These films were released as Episodes 1, 2 and 3. Whilst continuing the fantasy theme, these films follow the corruption of a popular republic into the tyrannical empire, which was the focus of the trilogy released first.

The New World Order on the march - fact or fiction? We think FACT!

The third installment has thus far not been released.

Episodes 4-6 were essentially a series of "feel-good" films. They were pure entertainment with no obvious political consequence. Episodes 1-3 featured a government plot to gather dictatorial powers over the people by means of terrorist atrocities blamed on terrorists, whilst in-fact perpetrated by the state itself. Anyone who has studied the atrocities of 11th September 2001 in New York, 11th March 2004 in Madrid, 7th July 2005 in London amongst others, cannot fail to see a similarity. However whereas the Star Wars saga is of no consequence, real people were murdered by their own governments in the attacks on major and capital cities on the above dates.

Now, here is where it gets sinister.

Episode 3 ends with absolute victory by an evil power-mad clique. Episode 4 starts with the new Empire hunting down subjects of the Empire who are in rebellion against its tyranny. These Rebels go on to defeat the Empire in Episode 6. In a quasi-religious sense it is inevitable that Good will triumph over Evil. The viewer who does link the plot line to real-world events is thus psychologically assaulted by a belief that just as in the films, good will triumph in reality.

The Star Wars saga must be seen for what it is: An Illuminati film which shows in plain sight the diabolical plans of the New World Order. The reason Episodes 7-9 have not been made is the same reason Episodes 1-3 were released last. It is because Episodes 4-6 were mere fantasy, but Episodes 1-3 are allegorical. Episode 3 represents the true end of the saga with the triumph of despotism and the establishment of a universal Empire – the New World Order. There are no Jedi's with occult powers who will save the masses. If this tyranny is not stopped NOW, it will remain until it has squeezed the life and freedom from us all.

Youth out of control

The recent killings of innocent people, including children, by juvenile street gangs have highlighted the growing problem of urban terrorism. When people are afraid for their lives and property they are living in terror, and the perpetrators of the violence and vandalism can only be described as terrorists. They set out to terrorize and they must accept that society is entitled to protect itself against them. The state has responded strongly to political terrorism and it must be just as vigilant in combating the bands of hooligans who are maiming and killing anyone who stands up to them or gets in their way.

Dealing with lads who have never encountered discipline is not easy. We are talking about kids whom parents or schoolteachers have never chastised and who think that they are untouchable. Their heads are full of liberal notions of human rights but they never consider other peoples rights. They are used to being fawned upon by misguided do-gooders like Dave Cameron. They have never been shouted at let alone beaten and they would be horrified if they were given orders or assigned duties.

It has been suggested that military service would lick them into shape but our professional army is against the idea. However the army could be deployed as military police to patrol the hooligan's haunts and be a visible presence on the streets. When we finally give up the pointless struggle in Iraq and Afghanistan we can use the army to fight a real war on terror.

The civil rights brigade would protest at military involvement but the police have already become an army with their flack jackets and machine guns; what difference would it make if officers were dressed in khaki instead of blue?

Something must be done to restore law and order. In the big cities it's young Blacks that dominate the no-go areas, in the Mill Towns it's gangs of Asians, but in towns and villages all over the country it's British boys who get out of their heads on booze and drugs. We cannot blame it all on immigration when our own kids are acting like savages.

Once convicted on a simple charge of hooliganism the young offenders should be sentenced to a term of correction. Six months digging trenches and sleeping rough in work camps would do more good than a much longer sentence spent watching television in a comfortable cell. We must remember that these kids are the descendants of British servicemen who fought heroically in two world wars. They are not intrinsically bad but they are desperately in need of guidance and leadership. In many ways they are as much the victims of liberalism as those poor souls who have been kicked to death for trying to defend their property.

AMAZON SELLING PERV BOOKS!

On-line bookselling company Amazon is acting in an execution of great social irresponsibility. They are perpetuating negligence, so harmful it borders on being an ally to criminal activity.

We consider Amazon to be propagating, and therefore contributing to, the potential sexual exploitation, rape, and molestation of children by offering a book on adult-on-child sexual relationships.
The sick book is titled, "Understanding Loved Boys and Boylovers."
In fact, on the Amazon site, self-described paedophiles offer positive reviews of the book, saying it "attempt[s] to shed the positive aspects of a healthy boy/male relationship."(!!!)
This is advocating, paedophilia.
Amazon is also selling a North American Man/Boy Love Association tome titled "Loving Boys"

Additionally there are other recommended titles promoting paedophilia:
Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex by Judith Levine
An additional note on Levine's book by Robert Knight:
A key source concerning child pornography in Judith Levine's controversial book Harmful to Minors has been arrested and charged with possession of child pornography in Brazil.

Lawrence Stanley, 47, described by Levine as the author "of the most thorough research of child pornography in the 1980s," is in jail awaiting trial. He was also convicted in absentia by a Dutch court in 1998 for sexual abuse of three 7- to 10-year-old girls, according to a July 24 article by Robert Stacy McCain in The Washington Times. Stanley faces a three-year prison sentence if he returns to the Netherlands.

Stanley is also wanted in Canada on charges of sexually assaulting a girl "under the age of 14," according to a wire services report in The Miami Herald.

In Harmful to Minors: The Perils of Protecting Children from Sex (University of Minnesota Press, 2002), author Levine quotes Stanley several times, mostly to make the case that the threat of child pornography has been "exaggerated." Levine cites Stanley's article in the September 1988 Playboy magazine titled "The Child-Porn Myth." She also cites a more detailed article by the same name that was published in the Cardozo Arts and Entertainment Law Journal in 1989. The book became controversial because it argues that sex does not harm children as long as the children consent, and contains numerous pedophile sources that are not identified as such.

Rep. Tim Pawlenty (R), a Minnesota legislator who is now running for governor, called on the University of Minnesota to withdraw the book. The University appointed an "external review" committee to study the issue, but has not yet released a report, said Kathryn Grimes, spokeswoman for the University of Minnesota Press, in a voicemail message left for Culture & Family Report.

As for the news about Stanley's arrest, she said, "We will bring the article in The Washington Times to Judith Levine's attention. That is our standard policy when we have any sort of question about an author's scholarship that is something that we pass along to them. So we would not have any comment at this time."

Meanwhile, the University Press has upped the press run to 10,000 to take advantage of the publicity. Levine and her supporters have fired back at critics, charging them with "censorship."

Dr. Judith Reisman, who has tracked the pro-pedophile movement through her books on sex researcher Alfred C. Kinsey, said "Stanley is a 'distinguished lecturer' at the Institute for the Advanced Study of Human Sexuality, the institution that claims to have trained roughly 100,000 persons, including 'clergy' and other mental health professionals. The Institute also designed the pornographic SAR (Sexual Attitude Restructuring) curriculum adapted by some religious denominations as 'sex education,' and described by author Michael Rose as used to 'educate' Catholic clergy."
Dr. Reisman is the author of three books documenting the fact that Kinsey's works, which have been a major influence in shaping the sexual revolution since they were released in 1947 and 1954, were fraudulent, and the 'researchers' involved in criminal sexual abuse of children. That information has been generally suppressed in the major news media

Brazilian police arrested Stanley on June 8 at his home in Salvador, 750 miles northeast of Rio de Janeiro. Shortly before the arrest, the Brazilian magazine Epocha had reported that Stanley had been photographing young girls in Brazil in provocative poses, and marketing the pictures internationally. Police said many of the pictures wound up on Web sites that feature child pornography.

Stanley, who defended the North American Man-Boy Love Association (NAMBLA) in a New York case, is publisher of Uncommon Desires, a newsletter with nude photos of underage girls. He also owns Alessandra's Smile, a company that sells "erotic material about girls," according to The Washington Times.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Sir:
Ten years ago, a young lad in his mid-teens was sent to gaol for four years at Truro Crown Court. His crime? He had detonated three home made bombs. The case was given space in the national press. Three years before that event, two pro-Zionist men of twenty-five were charged with making and detonating home made bombs. One of their bombs was so big that the cops evacuated thirty nearby homes just in case. Both bombers were fined(!) and given Community Service at Reading Crown court.
The national media froze the story out of their columns and did not report the case. It was obviously a cover-up.
Can you imagine the uproar there would have been if the bomb makers had been British Nationalists? It would have been front page news, with three to four pages inside. Talking Heads on TV would have decanted on it and emphasised the need to ban nationalist organisations. Its an old saying but one law for one....

Harry Mullin, Glasgow

Sir:
Regarding the disgraceful new law which outlaws "incitement of religious hatred".They have buttoned up the loop holes.
I recently came across an article regarding a priest who was questioned on his views on radical Muslims. The alleged offending prose were made back in October 2006 but has only now been questioned now the new law has come into effect!
I wonder how much this law will now be abused
This new law carries a 7 year jail sentence and an unlimited fine - utter madness!

G. Davenport, Leeds

Sir:
I think the Conservative Party can do better than lying snake David Cameron. Someone I spoke to said he's just like Tony Blair. He's just telling people what they want to hear. He probably wasn't right-wing at all until the recent election run up. There's more than a year to go before a right-wing version of Gordon Brown comes to office, although hopefully people will make Brown restrict or stop immigration before then. Think you guys! I can't do everything for you. What are the alternatives to Cameron?

K.B, Manchester

Sir:
Another piece of chicanery which didn't make the papers! A HALIFAX election candidate who failed to declare his criminal record has appeared in court.
Sajid Mehmood, 36, of Saxon Street, off Hanson Lane, Halifax, admitted making a false statement on nomination papers.
He stood for the Respect Party in Park ward, Halifax, in council elections in May. In 2003, Mehmood was sentenced to three months in jail for possession of heroin and cocaine. He was also convicted of driving offences and received four months in prison in 2004 and another 16 weeks in 2005.

Bob Scoffins, Bristol

Sir:
Please send me 10 more copies of the latest VANGUARD. As a lifetime subscriber to Spearhead, at least we now have Vanguard as a reasonable substitute.
Many thanks for your great efforts to establish a REAL White Nationalism monthly magazine.

Colin D, Ripon

Sir:
Harry Mullin makes some interesting observations regarding the Animal Liberation Front (Thoughts and Reflections, Vanguard June/July 2007) which hopefully will provoke some dialogue on where the BPP stands on animal rights.
I personally have never heard of the ALF murdering any lorry driver. To my knowledge the ALF target people and establishments that are harming animals. For instance, should someone who tortures animals to death all day, experimenting on them, be able to clock off at five o'clock and return home to his wife and 2.3 children, totally free from any reprisals as if he were doing a run of the mill job?
It is worth remembering that the National Socialist government of Germany, 1933-45, was the only government to ban vivisection.
Nationalist parties in Britain quite rightly condemn Halal and Kosher slaughter as cruel and unnecessary but remain silent on the fact that thousands of live sheep, cattle and pigs, etc. are exported from Britain to Europe in appalling conditions, and similarly thousands of live animals are imported to Britain benefiting no-one but the middlemen.
Anyone who has witnessed the horrors of intensive poultry farming in Britain where birds are fed steroids which accelerate their growth so much that their legs snap under the weight, would never eat takeaway chicken again (see www.kfccruelty.co.uk).
Obviously man is at the top of the food chain and anyone with an interest in nature will know there is not much vegetarian wildlife out there (incidentally our closest ape relative the gorilla is vegetarian) but surely there must be some respect and decent living conditions provided for the animal reared to be our food.

D. Summers, Bolton

Sir:
I have just read Eddy Morrison's online blog and I would like to thank him for his message of support for the Communication Workers Union during the postal dispute. We are not a militant union, we are simply fighting to protect our pensions, and indeed to defend this once great public service. Capitalism and the personal greed of a few is leading us towards privatisation. This would be a disaster. .

CHARITY BEGINS AT HOME

by Cathie Parker-Brown

With the terrible floods that have been sweeping across many parts of our country over the last few months we must spare a thought for all those whose families have been affected. It's heart wrenching to see folks lose practically everything that they own; many of them not having insurance because no insurance company will insure them. Yet such people (I've only seen white ones on the news) display such a true British sense of dignity throughout it all; just getting on with it, even having a joke while they are wading through what was their kitchen.

Very admirable people, yes, and people who need help now. So, where is all the help? Where are the concerts organised by Bob Geldof & Sting? Where are all the tin rattlers at the supermarket? Where are all the TV appeals hosted by 'celebrities' such as Joanna Lumley and the despicable Victoria Beckham with their pseudo sympathetic expressions? I'll tell you where they are - they are all too busy raising money for foreign countries with background pictures of starving Negro children.

After the Indian Ocean Earthquake and tsunami in 2004 we had mass hysteria and billions of pounds were raised. My children's school even jumped on the bandwagon and organised a fancy dress day. I had a dispute with the headmaster when I discussed the political aspect of such, and subsequently kept my children off school that day in protest.

We are told that the flooding is an 'act of God'. I say this is an utter load of rubbish. OK, the rainfall is in the hands of Mother Nature, but the floods certainly aren't. Like any other issue you care to discuss, we can directly look towards our old 'friend' mass immigration for the cause.

To accommodate the millions of extra people in the country we have, of course, had to build millions of extra homes. The building of these extra homes has created masses upon masses of tarmac which just does not allow sufficient drainage. In addition to this, we are fast funning out of places to build all these new homes to keep up with the colossal immigration levels, so many of them have been built on flood plains. Crazy but true. Government & Local Authorities have not put adequate flood defences into force, blamed by the expense, as usual, yet they can pay immense wages to countless numbers of foreigners for their fabricated job titles.

So, the old expression 'Charity Begins at Home' springs to our minds, but sadly not those of the leading figures of this country. There have been one or two token yet empty promises made, but don't hold your breath! If it isn't 'poor foreigners' suffering then the powers that be clearly do not give a damn. The indigenous folks of this land are thrown constantly onto the scrap heap to make way for the liberal nightmare of 'diversity' at every opportunity imaginable, yet there are no do-gooding saviours rallying around for the cause of the very people who made this country great...

STAND BY LOYAL ULSTER!

Loyal Ulster is under threat! A conspiracy by the 'British' and Irish governments, hand in hand with the Marxist IRA, is endangering the status of Northern Ireland as part of Great Britain!

The aim of the murdering IRA and their fellow Irish Republican travellers is to create a single state of Ireland ruled by Dublin by using any means at their disposal. They are experts at indiscriminately murdering innocent people by the bomb and the bullet. Contrary to the conditions of the so-called 'peace treaty' known as the 'Good Friday Agreement' the IRA are still in existence and their terror programme is still in operation. Their members are once again on our streets continuing their campaign of hate against the British people of Ulster. All these red terrorists should have received the death penalty for their crimes and hung like common criminals. To those who will say that Loyalist prisoners have also been released, we state that those loyal Britons should not have been imprisoned in the first place. Would any other country jail its citizens for fighting to defend it from attack by a foreign power? In Britain though, those standing up for our nation are condemned by both the corrupt politicians in power and by the pro-Republican media, most of whose journalists subscribe to the politics of Karl Marx like their comrades in the IRA.

Ulster is, and must always remain, British. Those people currently resident in Northern Ireland who refuse to renounce allegiance to the Irish Republic and do not consider themselves British should lose their British Citizenship and, as a result, their automatic right to live on British soil. This would enable all IRA activists and their supporters to be removed permanently from the UK.

The White Nationalist Party supports the right of the British people of Ulster to maintain their British heritage within the United Kingdom.

We say to hell with Tony Blair and his IRA supporting string-pullers in the USA.

FREEDOM? WHAT FREEDOM?

Even he can't speak the truth about his attackers!

For hundreds of years freedom of speech has been the right of every honest British Man and woman. Now that birthright has been taken from you.

Labour and Conservative governments have passed Race Laws and Public Order laws which forbid full and free discussion of the questions of race and immigration in Britain. They know their precious multiracial Britain is a DISASTER - so they are shutting up the voices of dissent by dragging honest White patriots before their law courts and fining or jailing them for the most trivial offences!

Are you ANGRY about the way free speech has been taken away from you? Are you ANGRY that you can no longer speak about the crisis mass immigration and the floods of asylum seekers have brought to this country? Are you ANGRY that race riots are tearing up towns such as Oldham, Burnley and Bradford and you can't say a thing about it?

You should be!

WARNING!

Bogus 'Asylum Seekers' are swamping YOUR area

"We hear reports back home of how good life is in Britain. It will be a better place for my wives. But the most important thing is for my children to get a good education."

Above: Bogus 'asylum seeker' waiting at Marine Ferry port in Belgium with his two wives, sister and six children

Every day of every year, thousands of immigrants, a lot of them illegal, swarm into Britain, many of them seeking the easy comforts of freeloading. All funded by YOU - the British taxpayer. Now a new Report has stated: Tens of thousands of 'asylum seekers', supposedly fleeing up persecution in their own countries left in many cases just getting a free ride on our economy, are coming into this country from Albania, Kosovo and from dozens of Third World countries. Our economy can not bear the strain of all these new benefit seekers, sorry, 'asylum seekers' - many of them bogus.

The present government, which doesn't give a damn about the real British people, are turning our future into many different sorts of Britain, and yours will be one of them.

These bogus 'refugees' and illegal immigrants are now housed, at YOUR expense, in houses courtesy of your local council. They have been housed ahead of ordinary Britons who have on the waiting lists for years. They are claiming Social Security benefits, all paid for by us, whilst our old folk freeze to death because they can't afford to pay their fuel bills and people are turned away from hospitals to die because there isn't enough money for beds. Satellite TV, mobile phones, new furniture - you name it, they've got it - ALL FREE! Even working people find it hard to afford these luxuries yet these people are getting it all on top of the usual child benefit, housing benefit and massive cash payments from the DSS. Self-sacrifice Britain - it's a joke but the White working people, whose ancestors fought and died for this country, aren't laughing as they pay for these 'refugees' to live a life of luxury.

Only a Britain policy that will STOP IMMIGRATION and begin a programme of honourably assisted REPATRIATION can save Britain from this freeloaded. This isn't a policy of 'racial hatred', it is a policy of COMMON SENSE!

British, homeless and sleeping in a council house? Why do you think you are, Arthur, losing?

Rudolf Hess Memorial in Denmark

On the 18th August 2007, White Nationalist activists from across Europe participated in a memorial march for the German former deputy leader Rudolf Hess who tried to halt the Second Brothers' War by a personal peace mission to Britain in 1941. Hess was unsuccessful and was instead imprisoned by the Allies for 46 years.
The demonstration was arranged by the National Socialist Movement of Denmark, DNSB, in a town named Kolding.
It is now twenty years since Rudolf Hess died in prison after having served 46 years punishment because of his struggle for the interests of the White Race.

UNBELIEVABLE

Right:

This leaflet shows how the government, despite their pathetic claims to be cutting the amount of immigrants residing in Britain, are funding, with taxpayers' money, classes to teach these people English so they are exempt from sitting the laughable 'Life in the UK' (citizenship) exam and allowed to stay here indefinitely.
One wonders how much people like Imran and Esther are being paid for their work in this 'service'?

Are you worried about getting indefinite leave to remain in the UK or British citizenship?

QED-UK has been running English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) courses for many years. Those passing the course at the end are eligible to apply for indefinite leave to remain in the UK and British citizenship and are exempt from sitting the Life in the UK (citizenship) exam.

BPP contesting West Leeds, General Election

The following is a statement from Eddy Morrison, BPP National Inspector:

We did not know whether Gordon Brown would call a snap election for November but many of the signs point to the fact that he would. He ducked the issue for the coward he is but whatever time the General Election is called for, the BPP has made a firm decision to contest the West Leeds Parliamentary Constituency in that election.

We believe we are the first Nationalist party to announce a candidate in the event of a General Election and certainly the first one to announce we will be standing in West Leeds.

The selected candidate is Eddy Morrison, BPP National Inspector who stood in the area in 2006 for the Bramley Ward. The West Leeds constituency takes in the Bramley ward along with Armley, Calverley, Farsley, Stanningley, Kirkstall, Farnley and Wortley. These are all areas where we have already put out literature and we have quite a number of Movement members in the Constituency.

The make up of West Leeds is good for the chances of the BPP seeing an excellent vote and a strong percentage.

There are 90,874 voters in West Leeds of whom 94.5% are White. At the 2005 Election Labour retained the seat with 18,704 votes (55.5%) returning the odious and time serving John Battle to Westminster.

Well we have news for you Battle – we aim to give you a run for your money. The radical BPP policies are very attractive indeed to the mass of Battle's current Labour supporters. Battle has no record on speaking about anything which really matters such as Asylum Seekers; Immigration and the Sick Society he and his friends have helped put in place. Time to go John and make way for the BPP!

Leeds West covering Armley, Farsley, Stanningley, Calverly, Kirkstall, Bramley - all good areas for the BPP.

We need £1000 to fight this election. £500 of this is for the election deposit and the other £500 for around 40,000 leaflets we are going to need.

Red Arrows too British for Olympics...

The Red Arrows will not be performing at the 2012 Olympics if the government gets it's own way (see below). Sign the petition below to make your voice heard!----- http://petitions.pm.gov.uk/RedArrows2012/

The world-famous Red Arrows have been banned from appearing at the 2012 London Olympics because they are deemed "too British". Organisers of the event say that the Arrows military background might be "offensive" to other countries taking part in the Games.

The display team have performed at more than 4000 events worldwide, but the Department of Culture, Media and Sport have deemed the display team "too militaristically British". Red Arrows pilots were said to be "outraged", as they had hoped to put on a truly world class display for the Games, something which had never been seen before. Being axed from a British-based event for being "too British" is an insult - the Arrows are a symbol of Britain.

The Red Arrows have been excellent ambassadors for British overseas trade ,as they display their British-built Hawk aircraft all over the world. The Arrows performed a short fly past in 2005 when the winning bid was announced, but their fly past at the Games was to have been truly spectacular

WHAT NEXT? WILL THEY BAN OUR FLAG THERE WE WONDER!!!

Left:

Britain's Red Arrows - something which we should be rightly proud of but who now may be be banned from the 2012 Olympics under our lunatic Marxist New Labour government!

THE CELTIC FOUNDATIONS OF THE BRITISH

Around 10,000BC, the first waves of Aryans moved from the area which is now Western Russia into what is now modern Russia. They came in waves. The Keltoi (Celts) were one of the first major waves reaching as far West as it possible to go in Europe. They settled Ireland, Britain, Spain (as Celto-Iberians), Switzerland, France and Low countries and parts of Germany. In all these areas from around 8000BC, the Keltic peoples set up quite advanced cultures.

Celtic artwork is particularly beautiful and ornate with the typical Celtic swirl patterns. Early Celts erected monoliths in many countries, the greatest of these being Stonehenge, which shows the level of dedication and effort they as a people could put in and endure.

Early Rome was almost destroyed by Gaulish (Celts in France) invasions. They were a warlike people, clad in tartan plaid and wearing horned helmets. (Unlike the Vikings whom we shall come to, and contrary to popular Hollywood "history" did NOT wear horned helmets.) Celtic religion was advanced and the priest class or druids held great power. The Celts were essentially worshippers of nature but their prime deity (for they had a number of gods and goddesses) was Lugh the sun-god. He was also called Lud - a name reflected in the London street name Ludgate, and also in many British place names such Loughborough.

In Britain, before the coming of the Romans, the Celts flourished. They were split into many tribes of varying numbers, some of whom lived on each side of the English Channel - the Belgae being one good example of this.

The main British Keltoi tribes were the Atrebates, the Trinovantii, the Iceni and the Brigante. The name "Britain" may come from an ancient Celtic people - the Prithani (or Pritani) as this is a name of Indo-Aryan origin.

It is important for a White Nationalist to understand fully the racial roots of our nation. We have the old multi-racial lie often thrust down our throats - and into our children's mind - that Britain because of successive waves of invaders is somehow a mongrel race and that current immigration (not invasion of course!) is part of this historical process. It is not! The immigrants arriving on these shores since the early fifties, being Negroid, Asiatic or other very different races from the Aryan have not blended into our society as easily as previous peoples, who were all cousins, part of the greater Aryan Race. What these new immigrants have given to Britain is, as usual, a discussion which the disgustingly tyrannical Race Act forbids common sense discussion about.

The Celtic domination of Britain came to an end with the Roman invasion in the first century AD. The Romans faced stiff resistance from the still fierce Celts, but tribal divisions and Roman discipline soon subdued most of the island. The Celts became Romanised.

Groups of Celts held out in Ireland, Wales, Cornwall and of course Scotland (the Roman Hibernia), and Celtic blood and Celtic heritage are still a major input into the modern British White person's make up.

Bomb-proof homes for city's race hate victims

BOMB-PROOF windows and fire-proof letterboxes are being fitted to homes across Merseyside targeted by "racists and yobs."

Properties which come under attack are being offered bomb-blast film to put over their windows and letter boxes which can extinguish a firework or petrol bomb.

They have already been installed in parts of Kensington and are now an option for anyone across Merseyside who comes under fire from louts.

Dean Bolton, watch manager with Merseyside Fire & Rescue's threat response group, said: "Anyone who lives in fear of arson attacks or has been threatened with the use of arson against them can have these measures put in place.

"Every incident is dealt with differently because no two threats are the same so we adapt our response accordingly.

"When a crew is called out to an arson attack, they refer to us and we, with the police and the housing association if there is one, put together a plan to help the resident."

Don't forget - this house could well have been a racist attack on native British people!

The measures are part of a bigger crackdown that could see tenants guilty of hate crime kicked out of their homes by one of Liverpool's biggest landlords.

Kensington's social landlord Community Seven's new zero tolerance approach will see offenders taken to court where they run the risk of losing their homes.

Christine Flood, Community Seven's anti-social behaviour co-ordinator, said: "Our safer neighbourhood team will be working within communities to encourage more people to come forward to report race-hate crimes.

"Anyone carrying out hate crimes will be in serious breach of their tenancy, which could lead to legal action and them losing the roof over their head."

Local police inspector, Dave Charnock, said: "We are committed to stamping out hate crime and improving our relationship with the community.

"We have a zero tolerance approach to all types of hate crime or racial incidents and offenders will go before the courts."

All very well and good - we do not condone racial attacks in any way. Immigrants must be repatriated in a fair and humane way. BUT - are the victims of racial attacks to include the thousands of White people of Liverpool who daily suffer RACIST attacks at the hands of alien muggers and robbers?

Harvard law school expels star student for "holocaust denial"

What began as a minor citation in a scholarly work ended up causing Noor Aljiem to be expelled from Harvard Law School. Aljiem, a third-year student majoring in criminal law, submitted a paper that examined Nazi travesties of criminal law, and received an 'A' grade. She was set to graduate Summa Cum Laude at the end of this semester, but the university law school was forced to reconsider her status when criminal law professor Alan Dershowitz (what's in a name?) criticized Njiem's scholarship.

"She could have used any number of sources for her paper," Dershowitz' explained, "but for some reason, one of her citations mentioned the book Did Six Million Really Die? by imprisoned Holocaust denier Ernst Zundel."

"I admit there were misunderstandings," Njiem says. "But I did not actually quote the book. I quoted a German legal reference that happened to be cited in the book. Also, the citation was only one of three hundred miscellaneous citations in my paper, and I was commended for the thoroughness of my research. Furthermore the author of Did Six Million Really Die? was not Ernst Zundel, but Richard Verrall, whose pen name was Richard Harwood. Zundel merely helped Harwood to get the book published."

Moral: Criticise the accepted ZOG version of the Holohaux and you are OUT!

In Flanders Field

In Flanders fields the poppies blow
Between the crosses, row on row,
That mark our place; and in the sky
The larks, still bravely singing, fly
Scarce heard amid the guns below.
We are the Dead. Short days ago
We lived, felt dawn, saw sunset glow,
Loved and were loved, and now we lie
In Flanders fields.
Take up our quarrel with the foe;
To you from failing hands we throw
The torch; be yours to hold it high.
If ye break faith with us who die
We shall not sleep, though poppies grow
In Flanders fields.

RELIGIOUS HATRED LAW BAN ON QUR'AN?

The Government's Racial and Religious Hatred Bill could be used against the very religion it was conceived to protect, an evangelical group has warned. A national newspaper (OK, it's the Guardian) today ran a story that Christian Voice would seek to ban the Qu'ran.

Stephen Green, National Director of Christian Voice, said recently:

"Under the Racial & Religious Hatred Bill it would be for the Attorney General to decide whether to prosecute bookshops selling the Qu'ran and the Hadith. That is politicising the prosecution decision in an unacceptable way, even though we all have our suspicions that an informal political process operates under the CPS system already.

"The Religious Hatred provisions were a shameless election political stunt from a Labour Party desperate to recapture the Muslim support it lost over its doomed adventure in Iraq. Charles Clarke wrote to every mosque in the country promising to bring this measure in if re-elected and blaming the LibDems and Tories for its demise before the election. Muslims want to stifle criticism of Islam, for understandable reasons. Now Muslim leaders have woken up to the fact that the Qu'ran contains enough incitement to kill Jews, Christians and unbelievers to land them in court and they have asked to Government to exempt it. The Government have so far refused to accommodate them.

"So our intention to report Islamic bookshops selling the Qu'ran and the Hadith, and the Hadith are even worse than the Qu'ran, is not accepting or going along with a law which we believe is fundamentally unsound and un-necessary; rather is it showing up how ridiculous and self-serving the legislation is by hoisting the Government and the Muslims with their own petard.

"Of course, we know the Attorney General would never agree to prosecute an Islamic bookshop, so our reporting bookshops will serve another purpose. When the first Christian is prosecuted, with the Attorney General's full consent and approval, for preaching against Islam - and that could easily be me - the whole world will see his partial use of a politically-inspired law.

"One would hope that such partiality would not harm the general good relations between faiths that currently exist in the UK, so damaging the societal cohesion about which the Government say they are concerned. It must be said that the use against Christians of a similar law in Victoria, Australia has set Christians and Muslims at each others' throats. The way this Government goes about things, that would mean another repressive public order law, and another ratchet step of the police state to which George Monbiot drew attention in the Guardian last week. What a time to be alive."

ENLIGHTENMENT

by Valerie Bittner

Oh to be a 'moderate', the darling of the age
The focus of the limelight, the centre of the stage;
Lauded by the media, courted by the press,
Beloved by politicians in their times of stress

How to be this wondrous thing has given me much thought,
The secret of such acclaim I've studiously sought;
And now I think I've found the key and would this joy impart
To all those who seek not to 'upset the apple-cart'.

Black is White and White is Black; the Moon is made of cheese;
A lie is truth and truths a lie if one desires to please
Numb the senses, dull the wits, obey the new decree;
The life-blood may be ebbing but the cotton-wool is free.

Thus have I now 'found' myself, my spirit born anew;
And all disruptive questioning I henceforth eschew;
Let 'moderation' guide me to the truly deserved fate
Planned carefully so long ago by the most immoderate.

The Way we Live Now [Part II]

by Junius

ZOG still in Charge?

"Tell me what company thou keepest, and I'll tell thee what thou art." (Miguel de Cervantes 1547-1616)

So, as regards this classic truism, what can we say about our prime minister? Firstly, it may be noted that he is a very good friend of "Sir" Ronald Cohen, a "close aide", who has donated £1.5 million to the Labour party over the past six years, and who, four years ago, set up the Portland Trust, a charity ostensibly designed to promote "peace and stability between Palestinians and Israelis". The 2005 salary bill for this no doubt well-meaning venture was £470,000 for four persons, including around £160,000 for chief executive Jonathan Kestenbaum. Also, in that year, Portland paid £137,061 to Apax Partners, a private equity group, launched by Mr. Cohen in 1972. We understand that the Charity Commission has been appraised of these and other matters and is, we suppose, considering what action, if any, should be taken.

"Sir" Ronald had been widely tipped to become New Labour's fundraiser-in-chief but, maybe due to the above mentioned little problems, it is in fact Mr. Jon Mendelsohn who has been named as Director General of Election Resources.

This gentleman is said to have acted on occasion in an advisory capacity to one Ruth Parasol, a colourful personality and co-founder of the internet companies Party Gaming and IEG which, in the Nineties, was offering paying customers real-time footage of ladies divesting themselves of their clothing. As regards Party Gaming, incensed investors lost tens of millions of pounds when, last year, the shares plunged 60 per cent on the Stock Exchange.

Winners yet again

Leeds, Barmouth, Aberdeen, Lisburn, Folkestone. Chipping Sodbury, etc. etc. hang your heads in shame. Not content with being voted cultural capital 2008, whatever that may mean, our lucky Liverpudlians have been selected to host, presumably in perpetuity, the new International Slave Museum! The newspapers depict this outfit's number one man, Richard Benjamin, laughing his head off, as well he might, but surely we should not stop here. Can we not somewhere express our horror at the way in which Genghis Khan put thousands to the sword, at the fearful genocide perpetrated pre-war and post-war by the Soviet Union, at the inhuman treatment which we meted out to Boer prisoners in concentration camps in South Africa, and at the way our own young folk were exploited in factories not all that long ago? If every alleged atrocity received due recognition we would need to have a museum in every British village!

Another trial pending

Sylvia Stolz, ("stolz" translates into English as "pride") served on the defence team of lawyers representing Ernst Zundel until she was bodily carried from the courtroom in April 2006.

To the annoyance of the politically correct purveyors of the "holohoax" she maintains that the German Federal Republic is not a nation or a state but rather an Organisational form of a modality of Foreign Domination (OMF) which does not have any legitimacy. In other words it is no more than a puppet government set up by the victors after the second world war, who still pursue their war aims by means of psychological warfare.

She has stated: "One of the Zionists' weapons is the Holocaust cudgel, with which, in the foggy atmosphere of the Holocaust religious cult, the legal apparatus of the OMF has degenerated into a new Inquisition. Behind it stands a cynical power calculation: world Jewry discovered the opportunity to found both Israel and their behind-the-scenes world empire on the Holocaust Lie, where it would be safe from close inspection. The Zionists know from experience that almost everyone can be made to believe almost anything if they can make them believe that almost everyone else believes it. And, thanks to extensive Zionist ownership of the media, almost everyone came to believe in 'Holocaust' through the power of suggestion" For this, and several similar comments, she now faces her own trial in November. This courageous lady deserves the support and respect of all who believe in free speech, including those who perhaps take issue with her politics.

They are ignoring you!

More than eighty per cent of us want a referendum on the so-called Treaty which has replaced the now defunct European Constitution. Logically we would suggest that these must be mostly people who are unhappy with the status quo and would like the opportunity to make their point, since those who favour the treaty as it stands are scarcely likely to press for a vote when they are already home and dry. This means that, without any doubt whatsoever, the British people would firmly reject the Treaty if given the chance to have their say. To deny us the right to vote is nothing short of criminal.

Interestingly, Elmar Brok, a German MEP, argues that the UK should "stick to its commitment or get out altogether." He notes that "the Treaty contains an article which gives any member state the right to leave the EU if it so wishes." So, what are we waiting for?

Capital crime

"Regardless of where you stand on the issue of the U.S. involvement in Iraq, here's a sobering statistic. There has been a monthly average of 60,000 troops in the Iraq theatre of operations during the last 22months, and a total of 2,867 deaths. That gives a firearm death rate of 60 per 100,000 soldiers. The firearm death rate in Washington D.C. is 80.6 per 100,000 persons for the same period. That means that you are about 25% more likely to be shot and killed in the U.S. Capital than you are in Iraq. Conclusion: The U.S. should pull out of Washington DC."

(From David A. Astin)

Killing of South Africa farmers intensifies

Elderly white couple latest victims in crime spree against Afrikaners

The killing of white Afrikaner farmers in South Africa is intensifying, as members of the ethnic minority attempt to draw international attention to their plight.

According to a journalist covering the killings in South Africa, since the Marxist ANC took power in 1994, 1,118 farmers have been murdered in the nation.

"Where is President Bush on this issue? Where is Colin Powell? I know this is blacks killing whites, so that is politically correct. The media don't seem to care. And apologists like Andrew Young are saying, 'Killing whites is OK; it's part of reversing colonialism,'" said Henda Wolfardt, a South African farmer who lives near Ventersdorp with her husband and two sons.

Wolfardt explained to WorldNetDaily, "We farmers are under siege. The communists want to drive us off the land. There is going to be a war in South Africa. In fact, it has already begun. The ANC has woken up the tiger in the Afrikaner. We see that the New World Order is a lie, and there is no place for white Christians or Orthodox Jews in it.

"A war has been launched against us. We have no choice but to fight for our very survival. The emerging non-white majority in what used to be the Western world is very race-conscious and filled in many places with anti-white rage. Farmers feed everyone, regardless of their culture or race. So why kill all the farmers, unless you want to start a genocide?" Wolfardt asked.

The Afrikaner are descendants of Dutch and other Europeans who settled South Africa in the 19th century.

Adrianna Stuijt, a Dutch journalist who was once a dedicated anti-apartheid activist, has been covering the farm killings in South Africa extensively.

Stuijt said, "Those tragically murdered farmers in Zimbabwe got huge international headlines, but thus far, the 1,118 murdered farmers in South Africa are being ignored – why would that be? I never like to use the purely racist terms 'white' or 'black' I instead prefer the ethnic minority references such as 'Afrikaner' or 'English-speaking South African,' or 'South African of Chinese origin,' 'Xhosa-speaking men,' etc. South Africa has more than 15 ethnic minority groups, and to refer to these people in such purely racist terms has become such an overwhelming habit of the ruling ANC that we do not to emulate this."

One of the worst farm attacks in recent days came July 27, when Johan le Grange and his wife – an impoverished Afrikaner couple in their 80s who lived with their daughter and two small grandchildren on a Witbank subsistence farmlet – were ambushed by eight armed Xhosa-speaking men at 8 p.m.

The frail Mr. le Grange was tortured before he was beaten to death. Mrs. le Grange was sadistically burnt with a hot iron but managed to survive the attack – although she remains in a severely traumatized condition, Witbank police have confirmed.

Mr. le Grange thus became the country's 1,118th murder victim in more than 6,000 farm attacks since apartheid ended in 1994.

After the murder of le Grange, the eight Xhosas (the majority tribe of the ruling ANC) then went to the le Granges' daughter's house nearby – on the same small holding – tied up the younger woman and her 4-year-old daughter and assaulted them repeatedly.

"The police said the torture of the 80-year-old, frail couple, their daughter and grandchildren – and especially of the women – had been incredibly sadistic, with hot irons, nails torn out, hours of burnings and beatings. Astonishingly, the attackers did not find the infant, which the mother had hidden away just before the eight men had rushed into her home. God had another plan for that babe, clearly. We posted an appeal from the police for information on the front page of www.censorbugbear.com. To date, it has not yet appeared in the mainstream South African news media except on Radio Pretoria broadcasts."

Meanwhile, one of South Africa's opposition minority parties, the Freedom Front – which mainly represents the Afrikaner ethnic minority community – last week urged the United Nations Human Rights Commission to probe the plight of the country's increasingly besieged Afrikaners. Dr. Pieter Mulder, the leader of the Freedom Front, presented the petition to the U.N. commission's Pretoria representative, Biong Deng.

Mulder called the precarious situation of the 4 million-strong Afrikaner ethnic minority "a politically-motivated ethnic massacre." The party's petition stated, "The international community should reconsider its involvement with the Afrikaners in South Africa with a sense of urgency."

Mulder said the Freedom Front also was concerned deeply about "a growing anti-Afrikaner sentiment. Afrikaner-bashing is in. A definite anti-Afrikaner sentiment was allowed to be rooted in this country."

He said many of the criminals who appeared in courts, accused of murdering Afrikaners, were hailed by organized ANC demonstrators as heroes.

Mulder said the Mbeki government did not appear to be bothered about the anti-Afrikaner atmosphere.

In Australia, the Aborigines are calling for the blood of the White farmers. The Russians are fighting against Islam in Chechnya. White Christians are attacked in the Balkans and Macedonia. What will it take for people to wake up?"
